Welcome to The King John School

We hope that you have enjoyed this day. Now that you have met your new tutor and new class, and we have met you, we can look forward to the start of term in September.

This booklet contains some work from Year 7 pupils so that they could tell you about their own experiences in their first few days at King John, and to let you know a little about life in the school. You will also find a 'really useful guide' to The King John School which gives an insight into some of the things you may have questions about.

You will also find plenty of information to ensure that when you start with us in September you will feel a little more prepared.

King John is a hard working, happy school, which offers many different activities for you to join and enjoy. We look forward to seeing you again in September. Have a good holiday.

The First Day

This Is What Will Happen

At 8.45am, Miss Murray, Mr Smith, your new tutor and the prefects will meet you in the playground. There will only be Year Seven students, teachers and Year Eleven prefects in school until 11am. You will be taken to your tutor room by your tutor and prefects, and will spend the morning together. In your tutor group will be some pupils you already know from Junior School, and lots of others you can begin to make friends with.

Once in your tutor-room, your tutor will get you ready for the week ahead. You'll be given your timetable. This will tell you the names of your teachers for each subject and the rooms where the lessons will take place. You will also get a map of the school and will be taken on a tour of the school to find the rooms where you'll have lessons. You will be given a homework diary (which is also where you'll keep a record of your merits). During the morning, the whole of Year Seven will meet for an assembly.

There will be a morning break of 30 minutes. The prefects for your tutor group will show you where you should go and what to do at break-time. They will show you where the toilets are, and make sure you find your way back to your tutor-room at the end of break.

Your tutor will then tell you more about how the school works. You need to know what the school rules are, and what every teacher will expect of you in the classroom. You will also want to know about arrangements for school dinners, sandwiches and packed-lunches. Third lesson will then begin. Your tutor will help you find your way to your first lesson. This is the final lesson of the morning.

For the first two weeks of term, Year 7 pupils will go to lunch at 1.00pm, before the rest of the school. You will have the dining hall all to yourselves. Your class teacher will take you there.

Each day, prefects will be in the playgrounds at lunchtime to see how their tutor-groups are getting on, and to make sure they find their way back to the tutor-room at the end of lunchtime.

By then you will be ready for your last lesson. The day will end at 3.15pm. Your first day at King John will then be over.

Who's Who?

Your Form Tutor

This is the person who will register you in the morning. If you have any queries this is the first person that you speak to. Your tutor room is usually your tutor's main teaching room. Remember to arrive promptly for registration or you will be marked late.

Your Learning Co-ordinator

This is Miss Murray. She is in charge of the Form Tutors and she also organises all the students in Year 7. She takes a special interest in your academic progress and behaviour, both good and bad! She also contacts your parents when necessary.

Assistant Learning Co-ordinator

This is Mr Smith. He assists Miss Murray with the students in Year 7.

Year 7 Student Support Officer

Mrs Campey is the Year 7 Student Support Officer. She is located in Student Services and is able to deal with any Year 7 enquiries from you or your parents. She is your and your parents first point of contact! Should you need to see her that's where you will find her!

The Headteacher

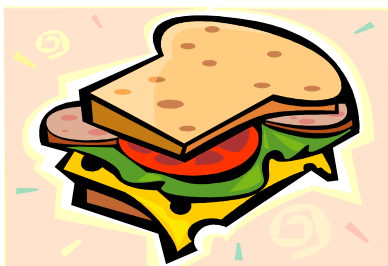

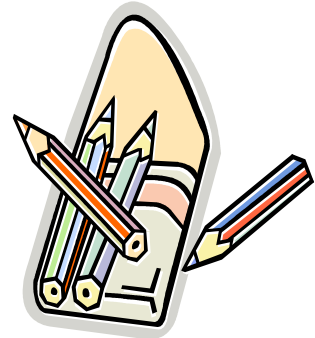

Dr Wilson. She is responsible for everyone.

Some hints, tips and information from Year 7

Be Prepared

Are you prepared for the King John School? If you are not follow Excellent Eight, bring a pen, pencil, rubber, sharpener, calculator, your planner, a whiteboard pen & books for that day An easy way, to be prepared for the day!

Cashless Catering

To buy food you need to put money on your 'account' and this will be charged at the till. It is an easy way to get food. There is a cheque box and a coin machine at the main staircase (by the theatre). It is an easy way to get food. To put cheques on your account you need to put your cheque in the GREY box, to use coins to put money on your account place your finger on the reader on the BROWN machine and put your money in. If you put a cheque in you will have to wait till next break to have money on your card.

Expectations Card

An expectations card will be new to you so I will explain it. It means your uniform is meant to be worn correctly. Everyone is given three chances before you get an after school detention. You must have your uniform card at all times. Your card can be signed for: Uniform, chewing gum or being late.

Planner & School Books

Your school planner is very helpful. It is a great help to keep you UP TO DATE with your homework. If you lose your planner you will have to pay £5.00 to get a new one. All your school books are under your control when you are told to hand them in. If you lose any of your books you will need to pay 20p to get a new one except for RE because you have bigger books so the cost is 30p.

Things to know

For basics you will need to know where the Student Services location is. It is at the bottom of the three storey block in the middle of the school. You will then need to know the toilet locations, they are: Student Services, by the swimming pool and the Science area.

Problems & Solutions

Problems happen in every school, but at King John we are able to give you the right solution. We have Buddies and Year 8 Transition team as well as, Peer Listeners, Teachers and helpers, but to make this work we need you! The problems you have, no matter what, either family, friends or bullying, you can tell us because as a school we can help each other.

Friends

Your friends can be for a lifetime so make sure that you do not betray them or be mean to them. Treat them the same way you would like them to treat you. It may be a new school, but it doesn't need to be a new you!

5 top tips

Be ready for school.

Do homework quickly but well

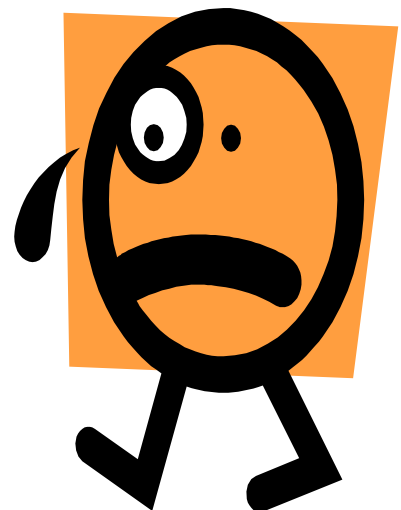

Stay with friends.

Wear your uniform correctly.

BE GOOD

Bullying

Bullying of any kind is not tolerated. If you think you are being bullied you must tell someone. This is very important. If you do not speak up then it cannot be dealt with by your teachers. Don't allow bullies to get away with it—speak out. If you know someone who is being bullied it is also important to tell someone so that help can be given.

Changing School

How does it make you feel?

Why do we need to go to school?

- To get a good education
- To get a good job
- To go onto further education, college or university

Why do we need to be on time?

- To get our registration mark
- So we don't miss anything important
- To meet up with our friends

What happens if I don't go?

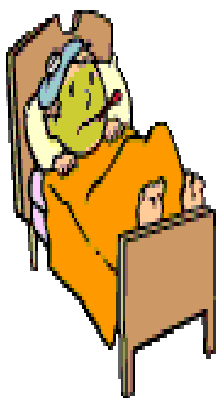

- Registers will be marked with a O
- Your parents can get into trouble
- Education Welfare may become involved

What happens if I miss lessons?

- Your individual lesson will be marked with a O
- Your parents could get into trouble
- The Education Welfare department could get involved
- You may find it difficult to catch up
- No one will know where you are and you may not be safe

YOUR Student Planner

The student planner is very important; it contains lots of information and must be brought to school EVERY DAY.

You should write your lesson timetable and homework timetable in your planner. If you do forget your planner you must collect a planner sheet from your form tutor.

Each night check what lessons you have the next day and prepare your bag. Also check what homework you need to do.

You should fill in your planner as below:-

Monday 12 th	Geography - Complete worksheet on river flooding	Date due 12/4/13	Completed 10/4/13
Tuesday 13 th	English - write draft letter to bank manager.	13/4/13	11/4/13
	French - learn words for vocabulary test.	13/4/13	12/4/13

Occasionally homework may not be set as it is not appropriate at that time. In this case write "None set".

If revision is set this must be recorded.

Homework projects can also be found on the school internet and student intranet

There is a comment box for your teachers to write in. This space can also be used by your parents/guardians to communicate with the school.

Your planner must be signed by your parents/guardians
EVERY WEEK.

King John Charter

Your right to EDUCATION

Our responsibilities are:

Articles 28 & 29 of the UNCRC:

Children have a right to an education. Discipline in school should respect children's human dignity. Education should develop each child's personality and talents to the full. It should encourage children to respect their parents and their own culture.

Rights Respecting Schools Award

A Rights Respecting School is one where:

- All pupils and adults in the school know what the UN Convention of the Rights of the Child is.
- They know the areas that the rights cover.
- They take responsibility for ensuring those rights are met.

You have a responsibility to make the most of your opportunities to:

- Fulfil your rights to an education
- Be safe
- Be healthy
- Be treated fairly

You can find out more about the Convention and the award at:

www.unicef.org.uk/crc

Checklist for Success¹⁵

Make sure you have all your equipment.

Make sure you turn off your phone

Have a big bag for your books.

Always work to your best ability.

Get your homework in on time.

Spend at least half an hour on your homework.

If you get a bus, always take extra money.

Make sure you have money on your biometric account.

Always keep your uniform neat and tidy.

If you get lost, ask an older pupil or teacher, they won't bite!

Check timetable to see what room you are in.

Always be polite to teachers.

Wear proper black school shoes not black trainers.

Boys and girls - no hooded jackets.

Girls: years 7 - 9 no make-up.

Always write your homework in your planner.

When you have D & T, always bring either a white apron for cooking or a dark one for construction.

16

The King John School is full of opportunities.
If you concentrate and work hard you can achieve great things.

Right from your first week, your teachers will give out merit marks. These are awarded for a particularly good piece of work, for effort, or for making an obvious improvement to your work. Teachers record them for you in the back of your homework diary. The object is to get enough merits to get a badge and a certificate, and then move up the ladder to the next merit badge.

The stages are as follows:

At the end of Year 8, the boy and girl with the most merits are awarded a Shield with their name engraved (the Shield is returnable).

No of Merits	Award
50	A Certificate
100	Bronze Badge and Certificate
200	Silver Badge and Certificate
300	Gold Badge and Certificate
500	Platinum Badge and Certificate

All Certificates are signed by our Headteacher, Miss Wilson.

There is nothing like walking up to the front of the assembly and receiving an award. You feel really proud. The ultimate award for any year is the Academic Trophy or the Endeavour Trophy. These trophies are given to the one pupil in each year who has made the best progress or effort overall (out of over 300 pupils). One of them could be yours to keep forever!

CHARITY EVENTS

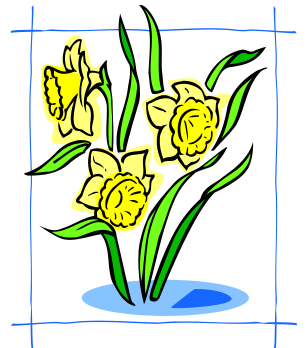

The form of Charity events at King John has changed over recent years. However, the enthusiasm shown and the great fun had by pupils remains the same. Our charity portfolio has widened and we now raise even more money for a whole range of charities and organisations. Pupils have, through their fundraising, gained an increasing awareness of working with the wider community. Pupils can appreciate and empathise with the lives and different cultures of others.

In Year Seven pupils each tutor group has a charities representative. Along with the tutor group they organise and run their own Christmas Bazaar. Funds raised in the past have helped the RSPCA, NSPCC and, recently, St Francis Hospice in Hornchurch. The money collected has also been pledged to help cancer sufferers, and their families. Some of the funds raised have gone towards computer equipment for the Atlantis School in South Africa. Each year, the bazaar supports various charities.

As a school we have raised money for the Marie Curie Trust and read "Daffodils" by William Wordsworth. The Modern Languages Department translated the poem into French and Spanish. The school also has close links to the Barnardos organisation and we support their charity work.

In the past we have raised funds for ¹⁸The Red Cross. We donated food to the "Harvest for the Hungry" Appeal. The King John School pupils provided 42 boxes of sugar, flour and pasta to be distributed by the charity to those in need.

We have also donated money to the Children's Hospice "Little Haven", to Guide Dogs for the Blind and to the Cystic Fibrosis Trust. One member of the Boys' PE staff even had his legs shaved to raise money for charity - there were long queues of pupils eager to watch this event!

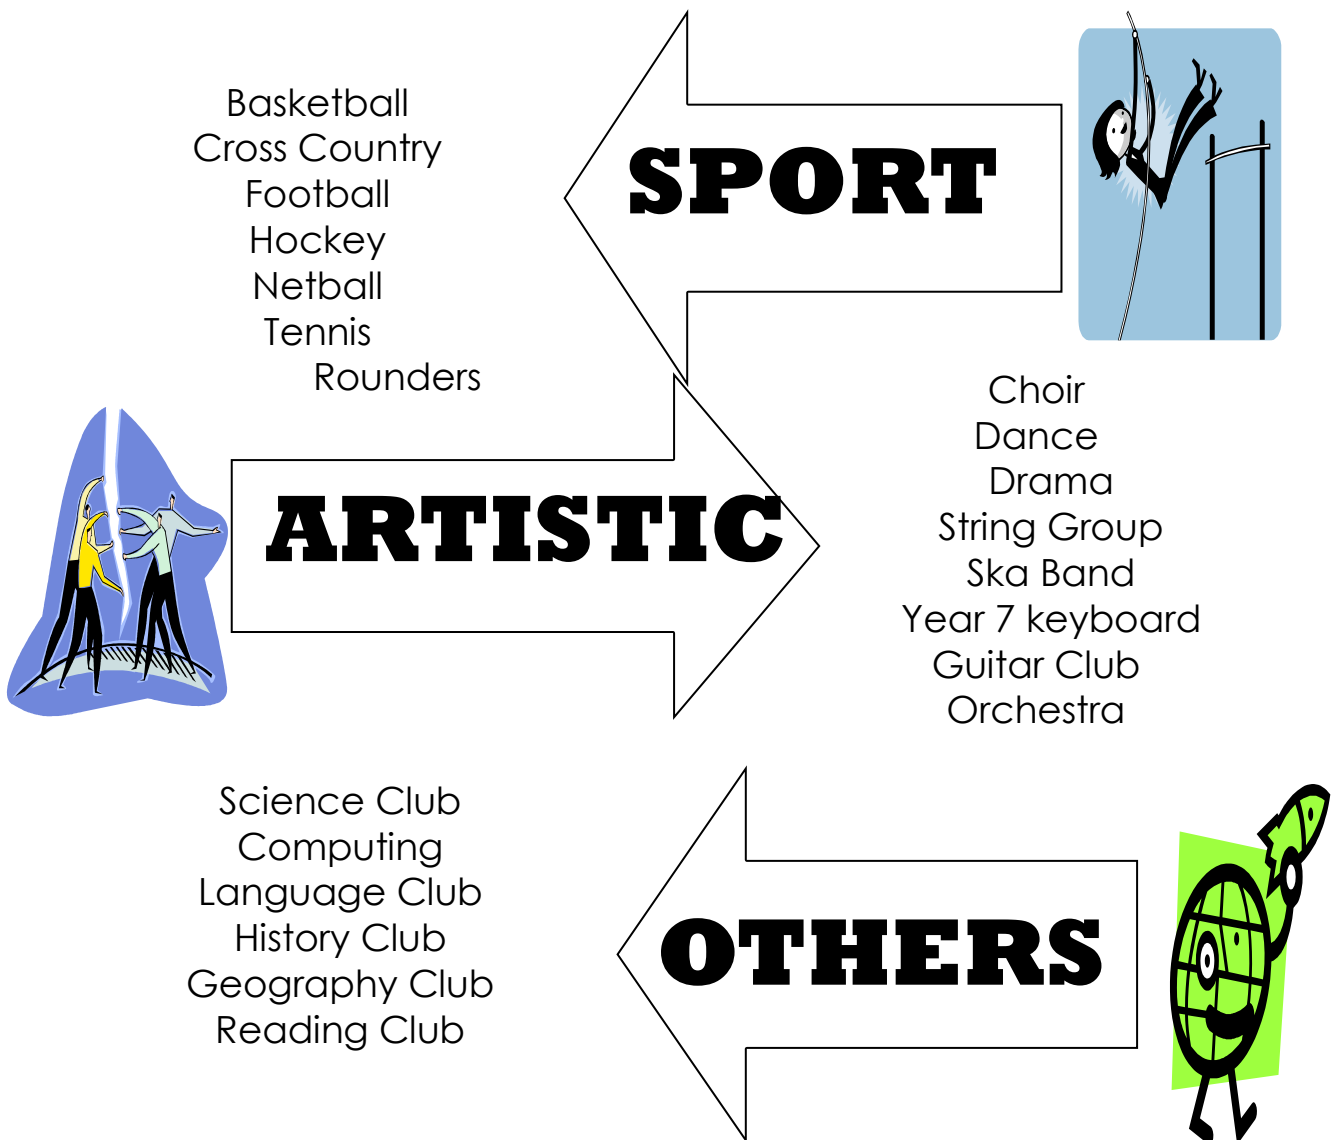

Teaching and other school staff regularly take part in the Macmillan Cancer Trust Coffee Mornings in the Staffroom.

Through Citizenship classes we support the Basildon Women's Refuge and often invite speakers from this and other voluntary organisations into school to tell us about their work.

We plan to continue to extend our charity activity next year.

Year 7 Extra Curricular Activities¹⁹

One of the good points of being a large school is that King John has lots of activities and clubs. These take place during lunchtimes or after school. They are open to all pupils. Whoever wants to take part, can. For you to get the most out of being at King John you should try and get involved in as many extra curricular activities as you can.

Year 7 Extra Curricular Activities

Food 'Glorious' Food

The great French Emperor Napoleon used to say "any army marches on its stomach". By this he meant that if he wanted his army to do well, he knew that they had to be fed well. At King John, there's never any need to go hungry. Besides the Dining Hall, food and drink vending machines provide snacks and, whatever your tastes, you are bound to find something to your liking. The Dining Hall sells two different set meals each day. Let's take Monday and Wednesday and see what's on offer:

SOZAK	Tandoori chicken 	Vegetable Risotto
YADUMZAK	Roast Beef with Yorkshire Pudding 	Cauliflower and Broccoli Bake

Monday	Wednesday
Chipped Potatoes Croquette Potatoes Diced Peppers and Sweetcorn Baked beans	Chipped Potatoes Saute Potatoes Garden Peas Baked beans
Apple Crumble and Custard	Chocolate Sponge and Chocolate custard

On other days, you could have Tuna and Pasta Bake, or Roast Loin of Pork, or Vegetarian Lasagne or Sweet Potato Curry or ...

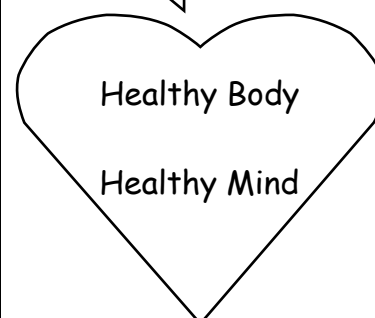

Snack Bar

If you'd rather take your lunch from the Snack Bar and make up your own meal, you can.

Sandwiches	Rolls	Other
Tuna and Cucumber	Turkey or Ham	Bakewell Tarts
Cheese	Cheese	Chocolate Muffins
Turkey		Flapjacks

Bacon Muffin
Sausage in a roll
Cheese on toast
Plain toast
Pitta bread with melted cheese
Jacket Potatoes
Chips (not on Tuesday)
Baked Beans
Desserts
Main dish of the day
Vegetarian dish of the day

For a quick snack at break, the chilled vending machines offer a choice

The King John Library

In the Main School Library we have over twelve thousand books. This figure when broken down reads a 1,688 reference books, 630 Young Adult books,

Years seven, eight, and nine can borrow two books each, while years ten and eleven can borrow four. This is due to the increase in homework and GCSE coursework.

The Library is fully automated each pupil is given a four-figure number in year seven, which is their personal number until they leave the sixth form in year thirteen. The computer system 'Autolib' records every book taken out during their time at school.

Each book is entered on the library database with as many keywords as necessary . This could be as many as twelve.

The search and find database at present holds nearly thirty eight thousand keywords. For example, in the fiction section we have the following keywords relating to genre. Science fiction, Romance, Humorous, Historical fiction, Mystery, Fantasy and Adventure.

While in the non-fiction books we assume the Dewey Decimal System i.e. numerical. This is the same arrangement used by most public libraries within the British Isles.

The Main school library remains open after school Monday to Thursday for three quarters of an hour: in this time pupils can select books and use the computers for educational work. It also opens before school at 8am for pupils in Year 7.

Thursday the library hosts Reading Club: this club runs for one hour, and finishes at four thirty. For security reasons we must ask for written parental consent for every club that continues after the end of a normal school day.

YEAR 7 COMMON ROOM

Year 7 students have their very own

common room. This is where they can go at lunchtimes and meet their friends and socialise.

There are games—an X-Box and DVD's in this room, so there is always something to do!

You may just want to go in there to sit and chat.

On a Thursday each tutor group take it in turns to organise 'Thoughtful Thursday' which is charity event to raise money for the year groups chosen Charity.

What to do if ?

You have forgotten an item you need for school, such as your PE kit or homework.

If you remember before school starts, and someone is at home who can bring it in, use the pay-phone at school to ring home. If your parents bring the missing item to school make sure your name is on it. Tell them to bring it to student services. If you still do not have the item tell your teacher the problem at the beginning of the lesson.

You need to leave school for a dental or medical appointment.

Bring a letter explaining this from your parents to show your teacher. You need to take this letter to Student Services with you when you sign out before leaving. Remember to sign in again when you return.

You leave your packed lunch at home and haven't any money to buy lunch at school.

See your tutor or Head of Year and explain the problem.

You lose something in school

Retrace your steps and look where you last had it. Ask your teacher if they have seen it. Ask the caretaker if it is in the lost property. If you still can't find it, tell your tutor.

You do not feel well.

Tell your teacher who may decide to send you to see the medical assistant. If it is in lunchtime, find a teacher or go to the medical assistant. If you go to the medical assistant during lessons you must have a not or lesson pass from your teacher.

Someone keeps pestering you.

Tell someone, preferably your tutor, as soon as possible. If this happens at break or lunchtime, tell the nearest teacher. Do Not Keep It To Yourself.

You fall out with your friends.

Try to sort it out among yourselves at first. If this does not work, ask your tutor to help you.

You arrive late for school.

Go to the student services and tell them you have arrived. They will show you where to sign into school on the late sheet.

You haven't done your homework.

See your teacher as soon as possible. Tell the teacher that you haven't done the work, apologise and explain that you will give it in as soon as you can. You must expect to be given a detention, though.

You get lost in school and cannot find the room you need.

Ask anyone you see who looks older. King John pupils are friendly and Year Sevens do get lost in the first week or two.

Remember we have all been new too!²⁴

MY FIRST DAY AT KING JOHN

At a quarter past eight I was ready to leave for my new school. Brand new uniform, new school bag, new pencil case, new start. What will it all be like?

As I arrived at school my knees went weak, and butterflies danced around in my tummy. But within a few seconds I was delighted to spot my friend Amy, and she was pleased to have spotted me. We knew we were going to be in the same tutor-group and once a quarter to nine came we joined the line in front of our new tutor.

We were soon in our tutor-room, being told what lessons we would have for the whole year, writing our names on our new homework diaries and workbooks. Break was strange as we were not allowed to eat in the playgrounds in Junior School but we were here. I talked to people from my tutor group and began to get to know them a bit more. Miss David came over and asked us how we were getting on. I was nervous so I let another girl, Lucy, do all the talking. It was then that I realised that I was going to like it here at King John.

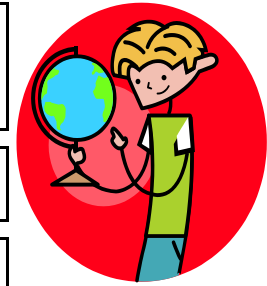

We had already had our tour of the school. The prefects answered all our questions, but the school had seemed so big. I could see myself getting lost very easily for the first few days. There were corridors upon corridors, rooms upon rooms and pupils upon pupils. It made me feel small.

Then came our first proper lesson. I was worried that I might do something wrong on my first day and get shouted at, or a detention, but the teacher was really nice and I felt at ease. She was sympathetic to those who had arrived a bit late from getting lost. We went over what we had learnt in Junior School, but I was glad that we went over it because I had, not surprisingly, forgotten a lot. The hour soon passed.

Our last lesson of the day was Science. People had told me that the teacher we had was very strict. This made me slightly nervous and I sat at the back, hoping he might not notice me. Luckily he didn't cover over, and when the end of the lesson came I let out a sigh of relief. My first day was over.

When I arrived home I couldn't wait to tell Mum all the stories, and things that I had done earlier that day. Then I had homework to do and books to cover. The excitement of the day had made me ready for an early night. I fell asleep wondering what tomorrow would be like.

The Start of Year 7

As I walked through the school gates.
On the first day of year 7.
I gaped and looked all around.
The year sevens to elevens.
Pupils standing in large groups.
All of them so big and tall.
And there was me on my own.
So vulnerable and small.
I got lost more than a million times.
Walked into the wrong class twice.
But at breaktime a group of girls came up to me.
They were really nice.
I got 100% on my test in maths.
And answered the French questions right.
You know, I'd nearly forgotten.
How scared I was last night.
Why was I so worried?
I think King John is cool.
You get more freedom and choice here.
Than you did at junior school.
Now I'm at the end of my first week.
And it's been really great.
I can't wait until next year because
Then I will be in year 8!
